

Personally, I have not published any calendar containing Beksinski's works. However, MGS in Częstochowa have published three of them (two big ones and a small one), using my ectachromes (as far as I remember). One of them was very successful. Unfortunately, I have not got any reproductions of those publications yet to present them to the reader. I shall do it in future.